PRINCETON TRIMS YALE, Elis Used Three Twirlers in the Contest-Score 7 to 5.

Almost 10,000 frantic Princeton graduates and undergraduates partici-pated in a snake dance around Prince-ton university field Saturday afternoon in calebration of a baseball victory over Yale by a score of 7 to 5. It was the occasion of the annual commence-ment day game of the two colleges and the Princeton alumni wore gray or the occasion.

It was the second meeting of the two teams this apring, the first contest going to the Elis by a score of 5 to 2. The managements of the two teams have arranged to play the third and deciding game of the series at the international league grounds in Newark on next Thursday afternoon. The game will be held in conjunction with the city celebration in Newark.

Princeton had to overcome an advantage of five runs ecored off Thompson in the first four innings. Dill Clark, coach of the Princeton nine, decided at the last moment to use Thompson, the sophomore twirler, instead of Link. Thompson was knocked all over the lot and had to give way to Link in the fourth inning. Link proved effective, preventing any more scoring.

The Elis were forced to use three twirlers. Garfield who nitched Veley and Southern realway preferred, which was neutralized by further advances in Colorado Southern and St.

chespeake and Onio, Southern Pacific proved effective, preventing any more scoring.

The Elis were forced to use three twirlers. Garfield, who pitched Yale to a victory against Princaton in the first game of the series, started Saturday's game and twirled very effective ball until the fifth inning, when he was hit by a hard liner from Shea's bat. He remained in the game, but the Princeton batters solved his delivery after the accident, and he had to give way to Walsh, a change which did not improve Yale. Walsh could not locate the plate and forced several runs across. Walrous relieved Walsh, but he was a second string twirler and unable to hold the Tiger batsmen in check,

After scoring a run in the opening it ning, the Elis enjoyed a batting fest in the fourth inning and when the dust had cleared Yale had four more runs to her credit. Thompson allowed four hits in this inming, one of which was for two bases.

Princeton started to gather her seven runs to her credit. Thompson allowed four hits in this inming, one of which was for two bases.

Princeton started to gather her seven runs to her credit. Thompson allowed four hits in the fourth, when she managed to get one man across the piate. Three more runs were added in the sixth and the same number in the seventh. When the Tigers went into the lead in the seventh inning the alumni in the stands made more noise than the 15 or 20 bands of various classes who returned for their reunion.

In the eventful seventh Walsh displaced Garfield in the box for Yale. Tibbott, the first man at bat, took all the confidence out of Walsh by slamming a three begger to deep right. Walsh hit the next two men, filling the bases with no one out. He was relegated to the bench and Watrous was sent to the mound. Watrous was wilder than Walsh and walked three men, forcing three men across the pan, a sufficient number of runs to put the game on ice for Princeton.

When Hoyt picked Vaughn's fly out of the air in the ninth, retiring Yale, the Princeton rooters leaped from the stands and, placing the victorious Tiger players on their shoulders, enjoyed a snake dance around the field. The Princeton rooters paraded through the campus and the celebration gave promise of lasting far into the night.

Over one of the stiffest courses road

Over one of the stiffest courses road runners have ever been called upon to race in New York city William Kyronen Saturday led a field of 157 rivals to the finish line.

The distance of the race, a modified Marathon, tield under the auspices of the Meirose A. A., was ten miles. Kyronen covered the course in 53m. and 53s. His time for a like distance in the recent Marathon was 54m. 10 4-5s. Saturday's race started from the 22d regiment armory at 168th street and the recent Marathon was 54m. 10 4-5s. Saturday's race started from the 22d regiment armory at 168th street and Broadway and ended under the Bridge of Progress at Wanamaker's in East Nunth street.

Much hill climbing was required of the contestants, particularly in that portion of the city along upper Broadway and Manhattan street. But Kyronen proved equal to the variety of hard tasks the route layer provided and surmounted all, to win finally by three city blocks.

Kyronen moved into the lead in the second mile and, setting a fast pace, maintained it to the finish, in spite of a narrow ascape from being, run down by an automobile at 60th street and Fifth avenue, and a severe stitch in his right side at 44th street and Eighth avenue, which caused him to rub hard as he ran. Team honors went to Morningside Afhietic club.
